When, all of a sudden, listen... Something’s happening... What’s that noise Suki?

Puuuuuuuffff Pffuuuuuuu pffuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuu

Oh no, some air is escaping from the balloon and it’s deflating fast and is going down and down...

“I don’t want to land in the middle of the scary sea lions” she yells.

Hurry up, Help, take a big breath.

1-2-3- Huff and puff. And huff and puff. Whoosh whoosh.

Phew... The balloon puffs up some more and climbs up in the air once again.

“I miss my colony!” says the little penguin after all of her adventures.

Can you help Suki fly back home?

Take a big breath.

1-2-3- Huff and puff. And huff and puff. Whoosh whoosh.

Well done! With all that huffing and puffing the balloon-fish flew as quick as a rocket and soon Suki caught sight of all her friends on the ground below.
