

breathing together

The Breathing Together Play and Learn Activity Guide is full of ideas for fun and creative ways to explore breath, breathing and the lungs, together with your baby, toddler or pre-school child. Including games, stories, arts and crafts, day trips, cooking projects and experiments, the activities will create opportunities to play and learn together, discovering some of the science about how your lungs work and how to keep them healthy.

